

BAKERY | £695,000

Set in a beautiful rural location on the southern coastline of Anglesey, just off the main A4080, Llwyn Onn is approached along a winding, tarmac drive through open farmland. Part of a stunning renovation of original farm buildings dating back to 1857 and previously owned by the family of Plas Newydd, the Bakery is a traditional stone Built dwelling which has been tastefully extended using modern methods to take in the uninterrupted views across neighbouring farm fields and countryside. Formerly a Bakery and a feeding pen, this sympathetic renovation has beautifully blended a host of original features within a modern designed family home.
